

Quantum Bio•Inorganic Chemistry Society

The Quantum Bio-Inorganic Chemistry Society e.V., founded in 2018, aims to advance science and research in theoretical and computational chemistry applied to questions in inorganic chemistry and bioinorganic chemistry, including any method developments that benefit these areas of chemistry.

As a member of the QBIC Society, you will be part of an international network. You will benefit from reduced fees at the regular QBIC meetings and can take an active role in scientific exchange and shaping the development of the community.

To apply for membership in the QBIC Society, please fill in the form below, sign it and email an electronic copy along with proof of payment to the Secretary General (Vera Krewald, krewald@chemie.tu-darmstadt.de). The QBIC Society will protect all personal data given below and will not share any personal data with any third parties.
